70 MILLION PEOPLE WITH RECORDS: AMERICA’S HUMAN RIGHTS CRISIS

Glenn E. Martin, Founder and President, JustLeadershipUSA

What can lawyers do to help end mass incarceration? Mr. Martin has been at the forefront of the effort to include in the criminal justice reform conversation the voices of those who have been directly impacted by mass incarceration. Hear about his goal to cut the U.S. correctional population in half by 2030 and how the legal community can be a part of the solution to the U.S. mass incarceration crisis.

This event is the third in the Human Rights Institute's 2016-17 series "Exploring the Transformative Potential of Human Rights," commemorating the 50th anniversary of the two foundational United Nations human rights covenants.
