Implementing Post-Sandy Resiliency Plans:
Status Report and Panel Discussion

Wednesday, May 14, 2014
7:00 to 9:00 p.m.
Columbia Law School

Governor Cuomo’s NYS 2100 Commission Report recommended how New York can improve the resilience and strength of its infrastructure in the face of natural disasters and other emergencies. The panel will discuss the Report’s major recommendations and the progress so far in implementing them.

Conference Sponsors
- ABA Section of Environment, Energy and Resources
- New York City Bar Association, Committee on Environmental Law and Task Force on Climate Adaptation
- Columbia Law School, Center for Climate Change Law

Discussion Topics and Panel Members

Panel Moderator: J. Kevin Healy, Esq., Bryan Cave

Overview of Development of NYS 2100 Commission Report
Jeremy Creelan, Partner, Jenner & Block

Energy
Philip Mihlmester
Executive Vice President, ICF International

Land Use
Stuart Gruskin, Esq.,
Chief Conservation and External Affairs Officer, The Nature Conservancy

Transportation
Robert Bergen, Executive Vice President and former General Counsel, Metropolitan Transportation Authority, NYC Transit

Infrastructure Finance
Michael Cucchiara, Director, National Development Council

This event is free and you do not need to register.
CLE credit will not be available.
Location: Columbia Law School, Room 104, 435 West 116th Street, New York, NY (corner of Amsterdam Ave) Nearest subway: #1 train at 116th Street