CLSHU TAX CONFERENCE 2016
Columbia Law School - Hebrew University Law Faculty

Taxation and Public Policy
International Conference

Tuesday, June 21, 2016
Beit Maiersdorf, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem

PROGRAM

8:45-9:15 Gathering & Coffee

9:15-9:30 Opening remarks
David Schizer, Dean Emeritus, Columbia Law School

9:30-12:45 Session 1
Chair: David Gliksberg, Law Faculty, Hebrew University
9:30-10:15 Yehonathan Givati, Law Faculty, Hebrew University
How Much Should the IRS and the SEC Pay Whistleblowers
10:15-11:00 David Schizer, Dean Emeritus, Columbia Law School
Subsidizing Charity: Donations or Endowment Income?
11:00-11:15 Break
11:45-12:00 Assaf Likhovski, Law Faculty, Tel Aviv University
The Intimate Fiscal State: Tax, Law, and Social Norms in Mandatory Palestine and Israel
12:00-12:45 Susan C. Morse, Univ. of Texas Law School
Regulating by Example
12:45-14:00 Lunch

14:00-17:15 Session 2
Chair: Ilan Benshalom, Law Faculty, Hebrew University
14:00-14:45 Jacob Nussim, Law Faculty, Bar Ilan University
Externalities and Optimal Taxation: Two Wrongs Don’t Make a Right
14:45-15:30 Andrew T. Hayashi, Univ. of Virginia Law School
The Effects of Refund Anticipation Loans on Tax Filing and EITC Takeup
15:30-15:45 Break
15:45-16:30 Reed Shuldiner, Univ. of Pennsylvania Law School
The Deferral Effects of Passing through Foreign Subsidiaries’ Passive Income
16:30-17:15 Edward A. Zelinsky, Cardozo Law School
Taxing the Church: Untangling Entanglement
17:15 Concluding remarks
David Gliksberg, Faculty of Law, Hebrew University