

Non-State-based grievance mechanisms:
An expert discussion on new legal and policy developments

Wednesday, September 9 at 11AM ET, 5PM CET

Please join members of the Teaching Business and Human Rights Forum for the next webinar in our “Current Topics for BHR Teachers” series.

We invite you to participate in a 60-minute conversation addressing:

- The role of non-State-based grievance mechanisms in strengthening access to remedies.
- Critical questions such as: the functions, reasonable expectations, and limits of these mechanisms as an expression of transnational governance, the actors involved, and the role of States in ensuring policy coherence.

Program

Moderator: Mr. Eric Biel, Senior Advisor to the Fair Labor Association and Adjunct Professor, Georgetown University Law Center

Panelists: Dr. Antonella Angelini, Swiss National Science Foundation Postdoctoral Fellow, Columbia University Law School
Ms. Hannah Clayton, Manager, Communities and Human Rights, International Council on Mining and Minerals
Mr. Michael Bride, Vice President, Corporate Responsibility, PVH

Q and A

NOTE: The webinar will be recorded.

REGISTRATION:

<https://uconn-cmr.webex.com/uconn-cmr/onstage/g.php?MTID=ef30483596b39851b7a874fbbbeb26510c>

Thanks to the Business and Human Rights Initiative at the University of Connecticut for providing the platform.

The Teaching Business and Human Rights Forum (TeachBHR.org) seeks to promote and strengthen business and human rights education by fostering collaboration among individuals teaching business and human rights worldwide.